

KILL LORD RELG!

The following combat encounter is Hard for five level 9–10 heroes. You can modify the details of this encounter as you see fit, replacing any of the named concepts with elements from your own campaign.

As Blackbottom Falls

Blackbottom is under siege by Lord Relg's demons at the command of Ajax. While some heroes work to save civilians and flee the city, others arrive on the scene to deal with the Lord in Corpulect himself.

Relg intends to reach the center of the city and unleash a massive wave of lethe across its populace. If he isn't stopped, every living being, demon or otherwise, will cave to a never-ending hunger.

Objective: Kill Lord Relg!

The heroes are successful when they reduce Lord Relg to 0 Stamina, earning 2 Victories each. The demon then decorporealizes and returns to the Abyssal Waste.

The heroes fail the encounter if each hero is defeated.

Blackbottom Rampart

When the heroes reach the city wall, provide the following information:

- ♦ "The air near the wall is heavy on the head and thick in the lungs. Flys hunt for flesh in dark clouds near the ground."
- ♦ "Relg steps over the rampart and looms over the tallest buildings still standing in the city. Screaming demons pour out of his mouth like a river flowing into the streets."
- ♦ "Several terrified prisoners stand bound and damned at the gallows near Relg's feet, long abandoned by their executors."

Lord Relg approaches from the wall dragging his axe behind him. Sixteen optacus demons skitter into position along the rampart and watch their Lord's flank. Restrained at the gallows, a polder, a dwarf, and a human noncombatant scream in agony, unable to escape the nightmare of flies and demons rushing past them.

Prisoners

It's uncertain whether they're guilty of the crimes levied against them. A hero can free a prisoner as a maneuver, or all three prisoners as a main action, allowing them to immediately flee the area. If at least two prisoners survive and escape, award the heroes a hero token.

Tactics

Relg's main objective is to move deeper into the city, but he'll contend with anyone that could thwart the invasion. He wants to stay close to the heroes and keep them in his aura of lethe until they're unable to fight back. Anyone who tries to flee or keep their distance must deal with his intestines, and if most of the heroes fight at range, swallowing their melee allies is an easy way of drawing them in.

The optacus demons nettle the heroes from atop the wall, focusing on targets that stay in one place for too long. They don't need to move very far to provide Relg with cover fire. However, if the heroes only focus on Relg, the demons will crawl towards the prisoners and start to attack them when they come within 5 squares.

Rewards

Defeating Lord Relg here enables each player who is also playing The Fall of Blackbottom with the same Director more time for their heroes to flee the city. The countdown in Chapter 2 starts at 20 instead of 15.

LORD RELG

"... Alright, boss."

Before the Wars of Forgetfulness, Relg ruled the Court of the Deep as the King in Lethe. Almost invincible, Relg radiated lethe. No matter the souls they contained, no matter how powerful their will, any demon who opposed Relg fell into the unthinking entropy. He ruled for an eternity.

Until the coming of the Bloodheat, the Demon That Does Not Forget. Sylt's immunity to lethe meant she alone could stand against the Descender. Sylt overthrew Relg in a bloody, merciless clash and formed a new court in the foundations of blood left behind.

Relg was adrift in the timescape until the coming of Ajax. Having heard the dark whispers about the Lord in Corpulect, Ajax summoned Relg, bound the once-king to him, and placed Relg at the head of the army of demons he now commands, the Infernum.

Relg's Languages

Relg speaks Tholl and communicates telepathically using Mindspeech.

Lord Relg's Malice

Malice Feature

At the start of Relg's turn, you can spend malice to activate one of the following features.

★ Birth

3 Malice

Relg regurgitates four level 10 demon minions (most commonly optacus, tyburaki, or unguloid) within 3 squares of him. The first time an enemy is within 10 squares of Relg when he uses this feature and has 1<5 is frightened of any minions Relg summons (save ends).

☠ Soul Rend

5 Malice

Relg burns some of his accumulated soul energy to empower his onslaught. Until the start of Relg's next turn, each time a creature takes damage from Relg, they take an additional 5 corruption damage.

☠ Solo Action

5 Malice

Relg takes an additional main action on his turn. He can use this feature even if he is dazed.

🌀 Lake of Oblivion

10 Malice

Relg cuts open a rift to the Abyssal Waste and floods the encounter map in a shallow lake of steaming liquid lethe until the end of the encounter. An enemy that ends their turn in the lake adjacent to one or more of their allies makes a melee free strike against a creature of Relg's choice.

He can't take turns consecutively.End Effect: At the end of each of his turns, Relg can take 20 damage to end one effect on him that can be ended by a saving throw. This damage can't be reduced in any way.★ Aura of Lethe

The area within 3 squares of Relg causes creatures to lose their memories and turn violently hungry. An enemy that starts their turn in an affected square must roll a d3 and subtract the result from each of their power rolls. Each new d3 roll is cumulative and the effects last until the creature starts their turn outside of the aura.

★ Writhing Intestines

Six lamprey-like intestines extend from Relg's open stomach. Each intestine is a 5 × 1 line within 1 square of Relg, has 50 Stamina and psychic immunity all, and can't be force moved. Each intestine enables Relg to grab one size 3 or smaller creature or object. An intestine can be targeted by abilities only while it has a target grabbed.

On each of Relg's turns, he can use his Latch Grasp ability with up to three intestines as a free action.World Splitting Axe 2d10 + 5Signature Ability
